

4. In default of payment within the prescribed period of the full amount of purchase money, the deposit, after defraying thereout the expense of the sale, shall be forfeited to Government, and the property shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold; provided that in any case in which the enforcement of this condition may devolve undue hardship, it shall be competent to the Deputy Commissioner to submit the necessary recommendation for the orders of Government. If the proceeds of the sale, which is eventually made, be less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall be recoverable from him by the Deputy Commissioner as an arrear of land revenue.

5. The sale is subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, unless the sale proceeds are below Rs. 50, in which case the Amildar is competent to confirm the sale after the expiry of fifteen days.

6. Persons bidding at a sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals; otherwise their bids may be rejected.

7. When the sale has been confirmed and the purchase money has been fully paid up, the purchaser will receive from the Amildar a written permission (saguvalli chit) to occupy the land (Form No. 2, Appendix D to the Rules under the Land Revenue Code).

8. Such permissions granted by the Amildar are to be considered conditional, pending the disposal of all appeals, if any, under Chapter XIII of the Land Revenue Code.
